

Advance Notice Of An Upcoming Cultural Property Advisory Committee Meeting

There will be a meeting of the Cultural Property Advisory Committee October 30 to November 1, 2013 at the U.S. Department of State, Annex 5, 2200 C Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. An open session will be held at 10:00 a.m., October 30, 2013; other portions of this meeting will be closed to the public.

During the closed portion of the meeting, the Committee will review the proposal to extend the Memorandum of Understanding Between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of the Republic of Honduras Concerning the Imposition of Import Restrictions on Archaeological Material from the Pre-Columbian Cultures of Honduras (“MOU”). Additionally, the Government of Honduras has asked that the MOU be amended to include material representing the Colonial and Republican periods of its cultural heritage. Comment may be submitted by outside interested parties. A Notice will be published in the Federal Register on Wednesday, September 25 (a preview Notice will be available on the Federal Register website on Tuesday, September 24) with information about how to submit comment. The comment deadline will be October 17, 2013.

Also, during the closed portion of the meeting, the Committee will conduct an interim review of the Memorandum of Understanding Between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of the Republic of El Salvador Concerning the Imposition of Import Restrictions on Certain Categories of Archaeological Material from the Pre-Hispanic Cultures of the Republic of El Salvador. Outside comment, oral and written, will be invited at a time in the future should this Memorandum of Understanding be proposed for extension.
