FULBRIGHTERS MAKING A DIFFERENCE

One Exchange at a Time

1917-2008

Professor Leonid Hurwicz was a recipient of the 2007 Nobel Prize in Economics. He was a Fulbright Visiting Professor at Bangalore University in India in 1965. At the time of his death in June 2008, he was professor emeritus of economics at the University of Minnesota, Twin Cities.

Professor Leonid Hurwicz credited his Fulbright experience as “an important phase in my development and a significant influence in the development of my economic theories.”

“Professor Hurwicz has influenced in a very significant and transformative way the study of economics and application of economics to important issues on an international scale.”

–Robert H. Bruininks, University of Minnesota President and Member of the J. William Fulbright Foreign Scholarship Board
