Despite the budgetary constraints faced by all governments, the Government of the Republic of Italy agrees to continue to significantly support scientific archaeological research, protection of archaeological patrimony, and protective measures for archaeological excavations at known sites, particularly in areas at greatest risk from looters.

C. The Government of the United States recognizes the outstanding work of the Government of the Republic of Italy to protect its cultural patrimony with respect to the 1970 UNESCO Convention. The Government of the Republic of Italy shall continue its efforts to:

The Government of the Republic of Italy and the Government of the United States of America agree to encourage further interchange through:

1. entering into discussions about how to increase the number and overall length of long-term loans of objects of archaeological or artistic interest for research and educational purposes, agreed upon, on a case by case basis, by American and Italian museums or similar institutions, recognizing the spirit of goodwill that exists between cultural institutions in both countries;
2. encouraging American museums and universities to propose and participate in joint excavation projects authorized by the Ministry of Cultural Heritage and Activities, with the understanding that certain of the scientifically excavated objects from such projects could be given as a loan to the American participants through specific agreements with the Ministry of Cultural Heritage and Activities; and

H. The discussions mentioned above in paragraphs E. and G. will take place during the first half of the year 2011.

ARTICOLO II

A. Rappresentanti del Governo degli Stati Uniti d'America e Rappresentanti del Governo della Repubblica Italiana prenderanno le misure opportune per pubblicizzare questo Memorandum d'Intesa.

B. Nonostante i vincoli di bilancio ai quali tutti i governi devono far fronte, il Governo della Repubblica Italiana concorda a proseguire in modo significativo il sostegno alla ricerca archeologica scientifica, alla tutela del patrimonio archeologico e alle misure di protezione degli scavi archeologici nei siti conosciuti, in particolare nelle aree a maggior rischio di scavi abusivi.

C. Il Governo degli Stati Uniti prende atto del notevole impegno del Governo della Repubblica Italiana nel proteggere il proprio patrimonio culturale, nel rispetto della Convenzione dell'UNESCO del 1970. Il Governo della Repubblica Italiana proseguirà i suoi sforzi per:

1. assicurare il tempestivo perseguimento di chi effettua scavi abusivi.
2. rafforzare, nei modi più opportuni, l'Unità Speciale dei Carabinieri per la Protezione del Patrimonio Artistico, e
3. sviluppare ed attuare dei metodi nuovi ed efficaci per scoprire eventuali ulteriori asportazioni abusive da siti archeologici e porvi fine.

D. Il Governo della Repubblica Italiana farà quanto in suo potere per bloccare l'uso illecito dei rilevatori di metalli nelle aree archeologiche.

E. Il Governo degli Stati Uniti d'America prende atto che il Governo della Repubblica Italiana permette l'interscambio di materiali archeologici con finalità culturali, espositive, educative e scientifiche per consentire un'ampia fruizione pubblica e un approccio legittimo al ricco patrimonio culturale italiano. Il Governo della Repubblica Italiana e il Governo degli Stati Uniti d'America concordano nell'incoraggiare ulteriori scambi:

1. Avviando discussioni su come accrescere il numero e la durata complessiva di prestiti a lungo termine di oggetti d'interesse archeologico o artistico per finalità di ricerca e di studio, concordati, caso per caso, da musei americani e italiani o da istituzioni simili, nel riconoscimento dello spirito di buona volontà esistente tra le istituzioni culturali di entrambi i paesi;
2. incoraggiando le università e i musei americani a proporre e a partecipare a progetti di scavo congiunti autorizzati dal Ministero per i Beni e le Attività Culturali, nell'intesa che una parte dei manufatti scavati scientificamente in tali progetti potrebbe essere concessa in prestito alla controparte americana a seguito di accordi specifici con il Ministero per i Beni e le Attività Culturali;
3. promuovendo accordi per scambi accademici e per specifici programmi di studio concordati tra università e musei italiani e americani.

F. Il Governo degli Stati Uniti d'America e il Governo della Repubblica Italiana faranno quanto in loro potere per facilitare idonei contatti tra i musei e le Istituzioni americane ed italiane per l'aumento dei prestiti, e per l'incremento della durata dei prestiti a lungo termine, del patrimonio archeologico e culturale italiano a musei americani.

G. Prendendo atto che la vigente legislazione italiana consente l'acquisto di oggetti archeologici di accertata provenienza lecita, il Governo della Repubblica Italiana e il Governo degli Stati Uniti d'America discuteranno ed esploreranno metodi per facilitare l'esportazione legale di tali oggetti.

H. Le discussioni di cui sopra, ai paragrafi E. e G., avranno luogo durante la prima metà del 2011.
