

International Education Week

Suggested Activities for Non-Profit and Community Organizations, Businesses, and Local Governments

- 1. For Non-Profit and Community Organizations, Businesses, and Local Governments
The following list is just a start. We encourage you to be creative in planning events for the week and let us know about your activities.
- 2. Encourage your governor or mayor to issue a proclamation commemorating IEW. Work with local international visitor councils (more at <http://www.nciv.org>) to arrange visits by international guests to local schools and universities.
- 3. Spotlight IEW events through articles and broadcast coverage in the local media, industry trade journals, and organization newsletters.
- 4. Persuade local arts centers, theater groups, libraries and other cultural organizations to include an international component in their programs during IEW.
- 5. Work with a local children's museum to offer a one day class in a foreign language to elementary school students.
- 6. Build classroom to classroom connections between your local schools and a school overseas via the Internet.
- 7. Find a Sister city / town and carry out a joint activity during IEW.
